Help the little blue cube reach the end of the level without falling or getting pierced by spikes. To do that you will need to outline its means of transportation on a small drawing board below – whatever design you come up with will serve as the creature's legs, wheels or claws and you will get to see the character try to move, run and climb using the parts you've just engineered. The visuals in this game are pretty minimal but pleasant to look at. Because of that Draw Climber is fully playable online in a browser window – no powerful hardware is required to enjoy this title. The only way to control the protagonist is by drawing its limbs on the board. Thankfully, if your design turns out to be flawed in some way, you can make adjustments on the fly – they will be implemented immediately. You should keep in mind that while the fastest movement can be achieved with the use of a rounded wheel-like contraption, it will not get you very far on an uneven terrain or if there are any gaps on the way. Sometimes you will be required to draw very specific legs or claws to help the creature reach its destination. Play Draw Climber and let your imagination run wild with endless possibilities when designing the most efficient means of transportation and help the protagonist overcome the challenges of every level. (696 votes) Draw Climber is a really fun vertical game which you can play online and for free on Silvergames.com. There's some kind of object that automatically moves by making its legs spin, one step at a time. It just spins until it reaches the finish line of every level. You won't control none of its movements, it just advances by itself. So, how is this game fun? What makes this game incredibly addicting and fun is that you literally draw the spinning object's legs. Depending on what's coming to you, you have to decide what shape of legs you want to add to it. Draw long legs with a grip to make it climb better and get over obstacles. Draw small more circular legs to make it move faster and collect all coins. You are free to draw them however you want, so collect all coins and unlock new characters. Have fun with this free online game Draw Climber! Controls: Mouse
